PETERSBURG, VA., August 5.—Official returns from the counties of the Fourth District are coming in very slowly, and a day or two may pass before anything like the full vote is known. The friends of Judge Mann, however, claim that he has carried eight of the eleven counties by such a majority, added to the unexpectedly large lead given him in Petersburg, as to make the district safe for him beyond a doubt. The vote in Petersburg was but little over half the real Democratic strength, and the same ratio seemed to prevail in the counties.

Owing to the storms in several sections of the State and consequent interruptions to wire service returns from the election yesterday were more scattering than usual and only approximate results can be indicated this morning. In a number of instances the figures above are based on estimates or are the totals of incomplete returns. Where only one total is given this means a majority for the candidate to whom it is credited.

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL

SAMUEL W. WILLIAMS, OF WYTHE.

same precincts give Ewing a majority of 85 over Brock.

GREENBAY, VA., August 5.—Greenbay Precinct gives Mann, 12; Tucker, 15; Caton, 11; Elyson, 10; Williams, 10; Catlett, 5; Brown, 5; Kolner, 5; Roberts, 5; Reid, 5; Boydton gives Tucker, 69; Mann, 22; Clarksville gives Tucker, 41; Mann, 40.

WAVERLY, VA., August 5.—Complete returns from Sussex, except Little Mill Precinct, give Mann a majority of 20. Little Mill will probably increase Mann's majority to 40. For the Legislature, Sussex gave the following vote: R. P. Moss, 150; J. E. Baugh, 83; L. D. Yarell, 47; M. G. Mason, 103; J. B. Persons, 48; W. H. Purdy, 85.

Sussex gives the following majorities for the parties named: Elyson, 272; Williams, 221; Kolner, 113.

POWATAN, VA., August 5.—The vote of Powhatan county, with one small precinct to hear from, is: For Governor, Mann, 75; Tucker, 118. For Lieutenant-Governor—Caton, 30; Elyson, 120. For Attorney-General—Catlett, 48; Williams, 163. Commissioner of Agriculture—Brown, 76; Kolner, 73. House of Delegates—Toney, 47; Harrison, 146.

GREENSVILLE COUNTY.
EMPORIA, VA., August 5.—Emporia has gone for Tucker. Greensville county very likely will give the Lexington candidate a small majority. Yarell, for the Legislature, is a winner by practically three to one in this county.

EMPORIA, VA., August 5.—Indications give Yarell for the Legislature a safe majority in Greensville and Sussex counties.

Fifth District

PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY.
CHATHAM, VA., August 5.—Nine precincts in Pittsylvania county give Mann 132, and Tucker, 130. Chatham gave Tucker ten majority; Caton, Williams and Brown are leading. For House of Delegates, Wilson, and Clement are leading.

DANVILLE, VA., August 5.—Twenty-one out of eighty-four precincts in Pittsylvania give Mann a majority of ninety-nine.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.
ROCKY MOUNT, VA., August 5.—Owing to a severe electrical storm telephone connection over the county is broken and returns are not obtainable. Rocky Mount Precinct gives Tucker 31 majority; Taylor's Store gives Mann 41; Callaway gives Mann, 26; Gladhill gives Tucker, 61; Boone Mill, gives Mann, 2. This ties the candidates as far as heard from. The Tuckerties concede the county to Mann.

Elyson and Williams will carry the county by a good majority. Between Elyson and Williams, the remaining precincts will increase this to over 500, but they cannot be heard from to-night.

DANVILLE, VA., August 5.—Mann carried five out of six wards in Danville, the vote being: Mann, 415; Tucker, 297. The vote cast was the lightest ever known in a primary here. Four years ago in the Martin-Montague primary, the total vote cast was 1,194. A few leaders on each side were out at the polls, but there was not much general interest taken in the result. While the voters did not adhere strictly to the wet and dry lines, the dry vote went almost solidly for Mann, and the wet vote the same for Tucker.

DANVILLE, VA., August 5.—The complete vote in the city is: Mann, 415; Tucker, 297; Caton, 236; Elyson, 472; Williams, 490; Catlett, 209; Kolner, 241; Brown, 107.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

GEORGE W. KOLNER, OF AUGUSTA.

majorities: Mann, 33; Elyson, 35; Williams, 137; Brown, 127; Ould, 60. Nelson and Martin, Ould's opponents, received, respectively, 34 and 17.

LYNCHBURG CITY.
LYNCHBURG, VA., August 5.—Out of a total vote of 1,300 in a qualified vote of 3,000, Lynchburg to-day gave Judge Mann a majority of 23 over Tucker for the gubernatorial nomination, while John Thompson Brown, of Bedford, swept the city with a majority of 709. The election was the quietest in years, there being vastly more interest in the returns to-night.

Williams, for Attorney-General, secured a majority of 183 over Catlett. Elyson's majority over Caton, is 213. R. B. Goode, incumbent, was renominated for High Courtable over M. N. Towson, by a majority of 554 votes.

Other city officers were renominated without opposition.

CHAMPLATTE COUNTY.
DRAKES BRANCH, VA., August 5.—Ten out of twelve precincts give Mann a majority of 8, and Carrington, for the House of Delegates, 114.

ROANOKE CITY.
ROANOKE, VA., August 5.—Roanoke's vote for Governor is: Mann, 167; Tucker, 75; Williams, 28.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., August 5.—The election in Bedford passed without incident. The vote as far as heard from, indicates a heavy majority for Mann. Bedford City gives Mann, 312; Tucker, 16.

FOR THE HOUSE—LOWRY GETS 140; TURPIN, 118; WEST, 140.
For Commissioner of Agriculture—Brown, 145; Kolner, 97.

For Attorney-General—Catlett, 150; Williams, 71.

Lieutenant-Governor—Elyson, 154; Caton, 68.

Goode, Blount and Penick give Mann, 47; Tucker, 18; Brown, 58; Kolner, 20; Lowry, 65; West, 47; Turpin, 58.

The Lowry for the House, has a safe lead, and Mr. Turpin has gained over his vote in last primary.

ROANOKE CITY.
ROANOKE, VA., August 5.—The primary election passed off quietly to-day. Many members of the Citizens' League who favored Judge Mann turned out, ignored the judges and reduced Tucker's majority over Mann to 30. The vote on the State ticket was as follows: Tucker, 795; Mann, 786; Elyson, 1,076; Caton, 371; Kolner, 820; Brown, 737; Williams, 930; Catlett, 613. Commonwealth's Attorney Evert Perkins was renominated over R. W. Williams by 273, and Trial Justice J. T. Hinton was defeated by John M. Kyle by 151.

There was no opposition to the other city officials, and to E. L. Keyser, who was nominated for the House of Delegates.

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., August 5.—Scottsville Precinct in Albemarle, gives Mann 46, Tucker 52, Caton 20, 12; Williams, 17; Williams, 73; Kolner 65, Brown 32.

For House of Delegates: Pitts 35, Dunn 53, Patterson 31. Scottsville Precinct in Fluvanna, gave Mann 82 and Tucker 15.

Seventh District

RAPPAHANNOCK COUNTY.
WASHINGTON, VA., August 5.—In the primary to-day, Rappahannock county gave Tucker a majority of 151 votes. Kolner, Williams and Elyson obtained substantial majorities.

STANARDSVILLE, VA., August 5.—Following are the returns of Greene county: Mann, 171; Caton, 6; Elyson, 134; Catlett, 17; Williams, 119; Kolner, 127. John C. Utz, of Madison, had no opposition for the Legislature.

STANARDSVILLE, VA., August 5.—Complete returns from Greene county give Mann 66 majority.

HARRISONBURG, VA., August 5.—Returns from the precincts in this county are coming in slowly. It now appears that Mann will have a majority of 200, and it may reach 250. A very light vote was polled, and it is not thought that more than 1,000 votes have been cast.

Mann carried this town by 41. Practically no interest has been taken in the fight, though the machine tried hard to get the vote.

HARRISONBURG, VA., August 5.—Complete returns from Rockingham county give a majority to Mann.

SHENANDOAH COUNTY.
WOODSTOCK, VA., August 5.—Incomplete returns of Shenandoah county from the primary show a majority for Mann of about 200. Votes for other candidates are very much mixed and no possible estimate can be made between these for Lieutenant-Governor, Attorney-General and Commissioner of Agriculture.

PAGE COUNTY.
LURAY, VA., August 5.—A very light vote was polled in the Democratic primary in this county. In Luray Precinct, Tucker has a majority of 8 votes over Mann.

For Governor, Mann has a majority of 65 votes. Williams, for Attorney-General, and Kolner, for Commissioner of Agriculture, have majorities of from 50 to 75 at the place.

Three precincts are missing and the others heard from will give Judge Mann a majority of 150. In the county, Elyson will have 238, Williams,
